

THE SOCIETY OF ANALYTICAL PSYCHOLOGY

ANNOUNCING THE RESTRUCTURED TRAINING IN ADULT ANALYSIS

A qualification to practice Jungian Analysis at a frequency of up to 4 or 5 times a week

The Society is pleased to invite applications for its recently restructured and modified Training in Adult Analysis.

The training is founded on Jungian and post-Jungian principles with a contemporary and relevant curriculum, and high quality clinical group and individual supervision from experienced and skilled analysts.

The recent revisions to the training now permit three different and more flexible routes to entry than previously advertised. Account will now be taken of applicants' previous training and clinical experience.

An on-going pre-training clinical case discussion group will be offered to therapists of all orientations who are considering applying to the training.

Potential applicants are encouraged to seek an informal interview with a member of the SAP Training Faculty before making application.

- 3 discrete and more flexible entry routes: 6 Jan, 21 Apr or 22 Sep 2017
- Customised training to reflect applicants' previous training & clinical experience
- Weekly seminars for up to 3 years
- Weekly group supervision
- Work with 2 Training Patients at min 4 times frequency under individual supervision

*For further information:
Urvi Bhatt, Education Manager
0207 419 8898
training@thesap.org.uk
www.thesap.org.uk*